Canelino's Calendar of Hope: Dreaming for a Better World

Canelino launches the 2026 Children's Calendar Contest under the theme "Dream for a Better World." This contest transforms the calendar into a canvas of hope, featuring 12 artworks by children that reflect their visions of peace, sustainability, kindness, and harmony.

This initiative provides young minds with a platform to convert their anxieties about the world's challenges—like climate change, conflict, and inequality—into creative solutions and imaginative expressions. Each selected artwork will serve as a message of inspiration for an entire month, turning homes and workspaces into daily reminders of youthful hope and responsibility.

Canelino is India's first artist-led stationery brand, blending Bengal's rich cultural heritage with international design standards.

Founded with a vision to elevate everyday writing and drawing into an artistic experience, Canelino Notebooks specializes in premium artist's books, calendars, and stationery that celebrate craftsmanship, storytelling, and visual beauty. The brand is deeply rooted in Bengal's artistic traditions—drawing inspiration from linocuts, woodcuts, village landscapes, and Kolkata's iconic imagery—while maintaining a refined, global aesthetic. Each product is thoughtfully designed to spark creativity, making Canelino a favorite among artists, students, and collectors alike. With a growing presence in museum stores and international markets, Canelino stands as a testament to how local heritage can shape world-class design.

Exciting Prizes Await!

The top 12 winning artworks will be celebrated with a cash prize of ₹2000, a bundle of exciting gifts, and a feature in the official Canelino 2026 Children's Calendar — a keepsake of creativity and hope!

But that's not all — every participant will receive a beautifully designed certificate of appreciation, honoring their imagination and effort. Whether you win or not, your dream matters — and we're here to celebrate it!
